New Warner Brothers Film At Daly City Tells Life Story Of A Flying Fortress

The life story of a Flying Fortress is the theme of the new Warner Brothers film, "Air Force," which opens at the Daly City theatre, tonight.

Produced with the cooperation of the United States Government, the story is concerned with the trials and tribulations of one
"Mary Ann," a B-17, caught unprepared above the embattled waters of the South Pacific during the treacherous attack on that fateful December 7.

Starting when the "Mary Ann" and its crew of nine leave on a peace-time mission to Honolulu, the story tells of the emergency landing when the crew learns of the attack on Pearl Harbor. With their destination Wake Island, they arrive there only to learn that they must take off at once for Manila. Encountering difficulties on the way, they make a hazardous landing at Clark field, where they are attacked while loading ammunition. It is the battle of the Coral sea that is responsible for the end of the "Mary Ann," but not until she is safely landed on Australian territory.

Except for a couple of incidental roles, the cast of "Air Force" is composed of the bomber's crew, featuring John Garfield, Gig Young, Harry Carey, George
Tobias, Arthur Kennedy, James Brown, John Ridgely, Ray Montgomery and Ward Wood.

"Air Force" was directed by Howard Hawks from a screen play by Dudley Nichols. It is a Hal B. Wallis production.

SCHOOL'S OUT!

With school vacations starting, the California State Automobile association, today, called upon motorists to exercise every precaution to protect the lives of school children.

At the same time it urged parents to instruct children to abandon street games and to encourage their use of playgrounds.

Statistics show that traffic accidents involving children of school age are more frequent during the summer vacation months. The majority of youthful traffic victims are killed or injured while playing in streets near their homes.

"WILL TO WIN"

Newspaper advertising as an institution has played a major part in the war, in developing the will to win, the will to sacrifice, and the will to work, according to W. A. Bowe, manager of advertising and public relations for a New York corporation.

Even those who have depended wholly on radio for their news, have turned to newspapers since the war, for information needed in shopping, in coupon purchasing, for the innumerable little details about what to do and where to do it that are forgotten when heard, and remembered when seen, clipped, and carried around in pocket and purse.

Most firms who advertised before the war have kept their firm names alive in some way. Many firms, though not doing the volume of business previously enjoyed, maintain newspaper advertising because they believe in the newspaper as a medium of expression. Such was the case, for instance, with the Bank of America, who mailed out a card to its friends among the newspapers, stating that advertising for 1943 would equal or be in excess of that for the previous year.

Bowe feels that newspaper advertising goes much beyond mere product sales. He feels it is a means of accelerating war production, and certainly proved its value in the sales of War Bonds. As a morale factor, it is an essential.

CASE FOR THE RECORD

This war has turned up some interesting facts. One of them is that all claims of public power politicians for the past decade that the nation faced a power shortage and that development of power by the government was, therefore, essential, were unfounded.

Now comes J. A. Krug, director of the Office of War Utilities, and says: "Electric power has never been too little or too late. I do not know of a single instance where the operation of a war plant has been delayed by lack of electric power."

And remember that 85 per cent of our electric power is furnished by private enterprise.

Also remember there is no rationing of power to homes or non-essential industries.

No Army-Navy E's are awarded or asked for in this record. Electricity is just taken for granted in the day's work. Those who have besmirched the private electric power industry should have red faces.

Red Cross Issues Set Of Instructions

"When To Call Doctor" Outlined By Committee

Because of the scarcity of doctors now available on the home front and because of the tremendous pressure on their time and strength, the following rules are suggested for the duration by the Home Nursing instructors' committee of the San Mateo county chapter, American Red Cross.

WHEN TO CALL A DOCTOR

1. Call the doctor only when necessary.
 2. Call the doctor during the day and not at night if you can avoid it.
 3. Call the doctor early or before he starts out on his daily visits.
- (New calls can then be made while he is calling on other patients in the same area — thus saving precious time, rubber and gas.)

WHAT TO TELL THE DOCTOR

Before telephoning the doctors have ready a definite outline of the patient's condition or symptoms, as follows:

1. Patient's temperature or fever.
2. Any chills, sore throat or symptoms of cold in head or chest.
3. Pain if any and location of same, and duration of pain. (Ear, abdomen, chest etc.)
4. Redness or swelling and location and duration of same.
5. Nausea, vomiting or intestinal disorders.

WHILE WAITING FOR THE DOCTOR

Keep patient in bed.
Give liquids only.
Keep accurate record of temperature, pain, vomiting etc.
If patient has an eruption or skin rash, keep him strictly isolated from everyone except the person attending him.
If you need a Visiting Nurse to carry out the doctor's orders or teach you how to care for the patient, call Burlingame 3-4561.
"Home Nursing classes are being taught by Red Cross instructors. Learn how better to care for yourself and family. Phone Burlingame 3-4561 for information," the committee urged.

Read This Before Taking That Trip

With troop movements and other military traffic mounting to new peaks, it is imperative to keep down seasonal increases in civilian travel, the Office of War Information emphasized today. These increases can be held to a minimum, OWI has been advised by the Office of Defense Transportation, if every citizen will place on himself the patriotic responsibility of traveling only when necessary.

As a guide in determining whether a trip is necessary, the ODT has defined trips for the following six purposes as non-essential:

1. Trips to other cities to visit friends.
2. Trips home for the weekend.
3. Sightseeing.
4. Trips to the theatre, races, or other places of amusement.
5. Any social travel or travel for pleasure.
6. Travel merely for the sake of going somewhere.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKean

CHARLES B. DRISCOLL is head of a large newspaper syndicate and author of the widely read column, "New York Day by Day." He is urbane, witty and a wonderful storyteller. You'd never think on meeting him that he had once been a Kansas farm boy, spending his days hoeing potatoes — when his father was watching him — and climbing trees — when his father wasn't watching him.

"Kansas Irish" is Mr. Driscoll's story of his childhood on this farm. It tells of tornadoes, cyclones, floods and of minor catastrophes that befell the author, such as tumbling into the pigpen and being attacked by an angry gander. Life wasn't easy for the Driscoll youngsters, but it certainly wasn't dull either.

The dominant person of this story is Big Flurry, the father, whose unpredictable outbursts of temper kept the children and their gentle mother in a constant state of uncertainty. Big Flurry had come from seafaring folk of Ireland, and he was all his life to feel a stranger among the placid farmers of Kansas. He took out his loneliness in violent and unreasonable rages.

His character is illustrated by his treatment of the two poverty stricken Ozarkians who attempted to steal his precious mainsail, which he kept to cover his wheat stacks. He cursed the Ozarkians, and he kicked them and he clouted them. But then he yelled at his wife: "Ellen, have you got a bite to eat for these hungry flops-ile-guys, I don't know." And after they had ravenously finished a steaming pot of coffee, a loaf of bread, a hunk of ham and a pot of boiled salt pork, and after he had fed hay to their lean horses, he refused to call in the police. He administered a few more clouts and kicks, shouted after them, "Get along with ye now, and good luck to ye!"

The Book-of-the-Month Club announces for July a dual selection: "Western Star," by the late Stephen Vincent Benét, a long narrative poem about our pioneers which was completed just before the author's death, and "U. S. Foreign Policy: Shield of the Republic," by Walter Lippmann.

MacKinlay Kantor, author of "Happy Land," received a raft of mail about his story from parents of boys at the fighting fronts. A previous book of Kantor's—"Long Remember"—a tale of the Civil War, found its way into the hands of a sergeant on Guadalcanal. In the thick of battle, when the Japs were throwing everything they had in the vain endeavor to oust the Americans, the sergeant continued to read the book while huddled in his fox hole. An officer remarked drily: "That must be quite a story." "Yes," sighed the sergeant, "they sure had a tough time of it back in those Civil War days."

Sport Fishermen Get No Extra Gas

There is no possibility of getting extra gasoline rations for sport fishermen, Harold L. Ickes, coordinator of fisheries, reported, but he said that "we still think it's a good idea for them to fish when they can and where they can without extra gasoline."

Gasoline for fishing trips won't be available, the coordinator said, no matter how productive of food sport fishing might be. He advised trying hooks near home.

"B" DEADLINE

Motorists holding "B" gasoline coupon books were today reminded by the California State Automobile association that deadline for the second tire inspection of 1943 is June 30.

Required under the nationwide rubber rationing program, tire inspections are made at official service stations and garages designated by OPA. Inspection requirements must be met before rationing boards will approve renewal applications for gasoline-mileage coupons.

THEY CALL US
"Cascara Commandos"

It's a jocular term—but with a serious implication. True, your pharmacist carries no grenade or gun, but he is in a very real sense a soldier. His post of duty is on the Home Front; his sector of the battle is this entire neighborhood. The assignment—which we share with your physician—is to keep you well, and keep you working. It's a big job, and an important one. Because, in these troubled times, the nation needs the full measure of energy and effort of everyone. You can help, too, by taking no unnecessary risks; and by calling on your physician at the first suggestion of illness.

Let peanut butter be the home front standby

It's time we realized the importance of peanut butter as a nutritious food, and not as a delicious snack food. Its flavor is only one of the things in favor of peanut butter. It is a protein food and that means that it can take the place of meat on the menu. It is a food high in energy value, the kind of food that gives that power needed for heavy work. As for minerals and vitamins, peanut butter scores high. It is particularly high in some of those all-important B vitamins. Let it be your standby food when the menu needs building up in flavor and heartiness. Here are just a few of the many ways you can put peanut butter to work in a nutritional way.

PEANUT BUTTER CUTLETS Combine 1 cup hot medium thick white sauce and 1/2 cup peanut butter. Add 1 well-beaten egg and mix well. Add 2 cups soft bread crumbs and seasonings and mix well. Form into cutlets or patties, dip in beaten egg, then cracker crumbs and fry until well browned. Serve with cheese sauce.

PEANUT BUTTER PUDDING — Mix 1/2 cup of cornstarch with a dash of salt and 1 tbsp. sugar, and 1/2 cup cold water. Combine 3 tbsps. honey or corn syrup with 4 tbsps. peanut butter. Mix with cornstarch mixture, and cook in double boiler for 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Then cover and cook 15 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Cool, pour into sherbet dishes and chill.

PEANUT BUTTER AS A SPREAD—Serve peanut butter on the table instead of butter. The family will like the change.

... When making sandwiches, spread the bread with peanut butter-salad dressing combination. It supplies added food value, and is good around lunchtime.

... To make butter go farther, cream it, add an equal portion of peanut butter, and blend well, mold and chill. Grand for toast, hot biscuits, waffles, muffins, and as a between meal snack.

5. Off for training school! The Navy takes care of all expenses. Meals in the dining car. A pullman berth for overnight travel. And you'll find comfortable quarters ready for you when you arrive.

6. Yes, — and right yourself in the outfit — $100 worth of new clothes.

8. At training school you'll follow an interesting schedule. Athletics, games, recreation with friendly companions are yours to enjoy in addition to the valuable training under expert Navy teachers.

9. And of the service at one of the bases. It's exciting and important.

MILO'S MARKET DE LuxE

6315 MISSION ST.

FEATURED MEATS ARE CHOICE MEATS AT MILO'S

At Milo's you'll find we feature the better grades of meat—that's been our long-time policy. It's not accidental that Daly City housewives have come to depend on us for choice cuts of fine quality meats.

And our large volume permits us to have a full selection of the various cuts and kinds for your approval. For instance, even under present difficult market conditions, we are able to furnish our customers with an adequate supply of good beef.

Whatever your meat problems, bring them to Milo's — we are prepared and anxious to help solve them. Whether it's some kind of fresh meat, or flavorful cured ham or bacon, you'll find you

SAVE AT MILO'S

THAT'S ALL THE POINTS YOU GET!

No matter what your financial status, rich or poor, you cannot buy more rationed foods than your equal share. Your allotment is no more than your neighbor's, whether he is a banker or a laborer.

So you must spend points wisely—plan your purchases to provide well balanced meals throughout the rationing period. That's where a really BIG food shopping center like Milo's can be of most service.

Let us advise how to best care for your family's needs.

Our food shops are all combined in one big, modern center, saving time and extra steps. All departments are here — quality groceries, select poultry and fresh fish, seasonal fresh vegetables and fruits, and a really big selection of kinds and cuts of fresh and cured meats.

Stretch your food points at MILO'S!

FARM - FRESH

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Give your family the finest natural foods in their most healthful form—crisp, nutritious vegetables and energy-packed fruits, fresh from the growers' markets.

With the produce season at its height, your selection of these foods is almost unlimited. Practically every type of vegetable and fruit is now featured in our big market.

Save your ration points by purchasing these foods fresh — and conserve processed goods for the use of our armed forces all over the world.

HOUSEWIVES—vary your menus and stretch meat allowances by serving our select POULTRY and FRESH FISH often. Your family (and your budget) will appreciate the change in fare.
